For the Love of Jazz! A Celebration on West Main Street

Speedway, IN – Peace through Yoga owner Mindi Epstein, and Karen Vance, owner of Yogulatte and the Hoss Building at 1032 West Main Street in Speedway, have teamed up to create a community celebration for the Indy Jazz Fest. “We always find ourselves just a couple of blocks shy of all the community celebrations,” says Epstein in reference to the Jazz Fest stage at the Dallara Indycar Factory on the 1200 block of West Main Street. “So Karen and I are working together to create a family-friendly event in front of Peace through Yoga and Yogulatte.”

On Friday, September 18, 5–7 pm, the community is invited to spend time with friends and neighbors on the Hoss Building patio. Free yoga classes will be offered at 5:15 and 6:15 pm. The first 20 people to register for a class online (www.peacethroughyoga.com) will receive a t-shirt. There will be frozen yogurt and Board Certified Massage Therapist Lara Chilton of Your Essential Harmony will offer complimentary chair massages. The community can look forward to music, a kids play area, slide presentation and drawing for prizes. “It’s about community,” says Vance. “Whether folks walk over or pull up on their bikes or in their cars, we love that they gather here.” Epstein adds, “Our Jazz Festival event is a celebration of our community and an opportunity to showcase the other buildings south of the main event.”

For the Love of Jazz is a rain or shine event. Classes will be held in Peace through Yoga’s studio in the event of inclement weather.
